WE'VE GOT HEY FEVER

Have you got the FEVER? What fever? Why, the rowdy HEY FEVER!!!! It's all over Carroll and its spirits are running high. Cheering voices, laughter in the halls, yells of "HEY" echoing up the stairs, and complete rowdiness are all a part of this contagious, uncurable fever. Many have caught HEY FEVER at ball games, others at pep sessions, and some, just walking down the hall. It has a way of sneaking up on you and taking you completely by surprise. HEY FEVER can make rowdy people out of the quietest of us all and it makes the already rowdy people almost complete crazies. No one can exactly pinpoint the reason for this fever, but it is believed that HEY FEVER is the result of an abundant amount of pep and spirit combined, and also a little bit of excitement thrown in. But whatever the cause, whatever the effects, HEY FEVER is here to stay!!!!

UPPER LEFT: CHS cheerleaders cheering us on! CENTER LEFT: Greg Schipper handling a "field problem." Tim Haffner nonchalantly says "Hey, Good Lookin'!" The unofficial CHS Romper Room—Jeff Smith, Tim Williams, Tim Walters, Eric Baldwin, and Charles Hake. Mr. McKinney and Mike Hoppe waltz with the "flowers." ABOVE: Mr. Matthew and his London group at Trefalger Square, London. UPPER RIGHT: Scott Clark leads Charger Fans into rowdiness!!!! BELOW: Mary Faroute and Dave Lansaw? Mrs. Duff helps feed the "Cookie Monster."

These enthusiastic students show the true meaning of being psyched-up.

PSYCHED-UP [5]

Writer's cramp, wastebaskets full of half used paper, and worn out erasers: believe it or not, there is more to English class than that. Students may not realize it, but by taking advantage of the many English classes available, they learn more than just how to write. They learn to conjugate, punctuate, use idioms, inflections, and etymologies, along with spelling and the uses of synonyms and antonyms.

Where else but in an English class, can you get credit for writing a paper on "The art of prostitution" or "the proper way to make pot brownies" or read a paper about those favorite standbys dolphins or medicine.

In what other classes can you be faced with unruly margins, impossible copy, and unidentifiable pictures, except those all time favorites Newspaper, Yearbook, and Journalism I.

So, the next time you say "I haven't learned anything in school," Just think of how much you've advanced since the time when it was a laborious process of coordinating muscles and mind just to write "See Spot run!!!"

Loneliness by Verna Goodson

Loneliness . . . the ocean in the winter
As huge waves break onto the shore
Gently or crashing down with terrible force.
Driftwood washes upon the beach at my feet.
I add it to my pile of sad memories.

Spanish, French, Speech and Drama evolve around the communication of people. They all provide a way for students to Speak Out, to express themselves and their interests, and to learn something in the process.

Spanish and French are two classes that provide a way for students to improve on language skills (if they've managed to master English yet.) Spanish students will no longer have to open their books and see the same sincere faces of Pepito and Iman; new characters will be introduced next year.

The Freshman and Sophomore English classes along with Speech class, all provide a way to improve on that all time favorite, "talking." Don't be surprised if you walk past an English class and hear a speech being given on the art of sky-diving or maybe even acupuncture. A very sticky subject that could have you on pins and needles.

Drama is involved in "body language." Where else can you see a whole class acting like frogs or worms? Nowhere else in the school will you find a tractor, complete with tires, made of students.

The French students paint billboards (kiosk) displayed in France.

Row, row, row your boat, gently down the room. This is the idea that Diane Williams is trying to get across in her Sophomore English class.

The CHS science department continues to alert students to our constantly changing world. The most distant planet is brought to our doorstep in the planetarium. Students are helped to understand that biology, chemistry and physics are not mysterious but a part of everyday life.

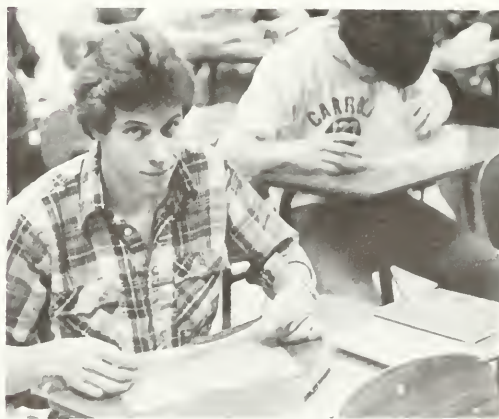

Try to imagine a point in space, or the opposite of a number. Picture a plane or a set of real numbers. Mathematics requires not only the exactness of a science but the creativity of an art. At CHS these qualities are combined and the result is a highly successful math department.

Nowhere else but in the Business Department can a Carroll student be heard to eventually repeat those famous sayings of their instructors that try to teach us the basics of our courses. These sayings range from "keep your hands on the home row", "your debits must equal your credits", and "bring your own supplies". The students in these classes have become owners of camping supply companys, stereo manufactures, and have assumed the responsibilities of being head secretary for a ski resort.

The imaginative use of business simulations have given the courses added meaning to all the students involved in them. These simulations give students a look at the skills needed to compete in the tough job market.

Of course there are the little annoying things that must be done to succeed in these classes. So what if you have to type 14 carbon copies of a letter that will be sent to no one; after all "practice makes perfect".

Columbus had his leaky ships and trouble with the natives, Armstrong had his worn out craft and trouble with the martians.

Here at Carroll it is the job of the Social Studies Department to teach us about these and many other things. In these classrooms you can find yourself talking with a congressman on the telephone, getting to visit the County Jail (which is easier than getting out), or talking with a murderer, (I wouldn't make him mad if I were you). You learn about everything from prehistoric cave people, to filling out your tax forms.

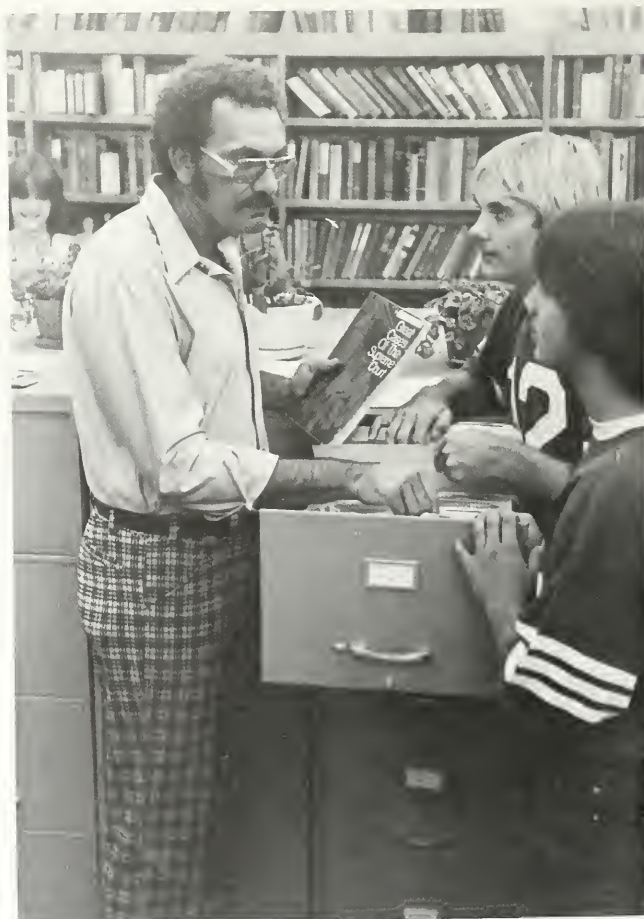

Through trial and error, inspiration and perspiration, our social studies teachers strive to turn out well informed, responsible American citizens. Who knows, one of them may become President!

Second Graders help the Social Field Problems class rediscover ponds.

History can be an enjoyable subject when you are a part of Carroll's history.

Steve Grimmer discusses his living experiences in the Panamanian area.

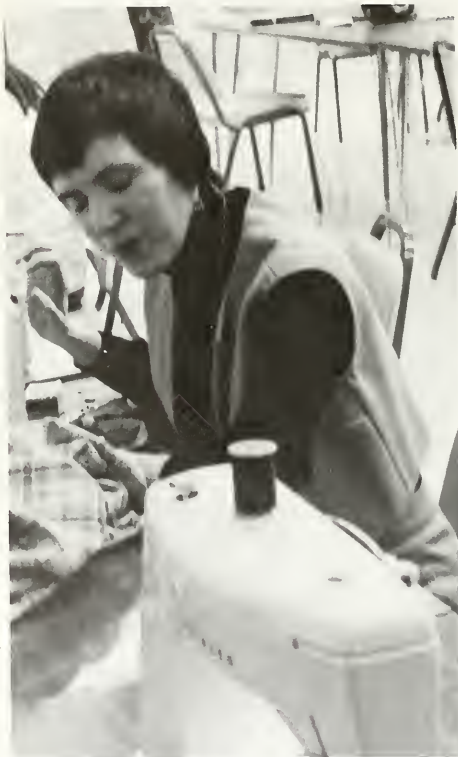

Looking across the miles and miles of homework keeps these guys involved.

Running for president isn't always fun, especially dealing with the senior citizens.

In the midst of the whizzing sound of sewing machines and blenders, the popping of bacon and eggs frying, you will find the future homemakers of tomorrow. Among those hard at work making an apron for that final grade or the soufflé that has fallen for the third time, you will find both guy's and gal's sewing and baking their way to possible fame. These classes have survived the energy crisis; when their stoves and sewing machines were turned off, they kept on going through thick and thin, through lumpy and curdled. When you walk into the Home-Ec rooms, you might hear that familiar sound much like that of an electric mixer, or silverware being crushed by the garbage disposal. Who knows, among these people may even be a gourmet chef. Afterall, this may be how the galloping gourmet got his start.

What are Phil Baker and Stu Brown cooking up today?

A student comes to Carroll as a frail, weak, mixed up individual, but, never fear, through the use of the incredible Carroll Growth Process this person can eventually graduate as a Super Senior. This process all starts as a freshman, when every student is required to take one full year of gym. Contrary to popular belief, class was not designed as an initiation to rid the school of undesirables. Instead it was created to teach skill and sportsmanship. (Try explaining that to the 6'7", 230 lbs. kid during a warball game.) A Carroll student is put through a year of running, jumping, dodging, and dancing. But there is always a bright side. This year for the first time, the classes were co-ed.

Healthy bodies are not the only thing demanded of a Carroll student. A quick, healthy mind is also a requirement. Thus starts phase two of the Carroll Growth Process.

This is the mind building phase. A major part of this phase is the library. Here, with the help of the librarians, students are able to use books, magazines, files and a variety of other materials. This is where students run for help when the teacher assigns a term paper on a subject like Lake Tanganyika or the life of Lev Davidovich Landau.

The third phase is the one which completes the entire process. This phase includes everything from career choosing, to that little bit of discipline. In case you haven't guessed this is the guidance department.

After the completion of this process every student can graduate a well-rounded, strong Super Senior.

Thanks to Cammie McNary, Debbie Dearduff's outlook has really been looking down.

Talking out the situation is one of Mr. Johnston's many duties.

With so many files to choose from, no wonder Tim Williams, Jacki Bosserman, Todd White, and Kathy Biggs look confused.

Juniors find out what a big help the Media Center can be while doing a history report.

Eat your hearts out Fred Astair and Ginger Rogers.

Student librarians like Janice Ternet and Jahna Welsh give aid to students in the Media Center.

If you walk into a room here at Carroll and plaster comes flying at you, don't run for the nearest exit—you have just walked into the Art Room.

Students worked on individual projects throughout the year. Painting, sculpture, macrame, hooked rugs and clay were all explored by our future artists.

Reactions to this class range from a sigh of relief after finishing a two week assignment, to sheer disgust after his clay project has fallen for the third time.

But this does not discourage the talented Carroll artists, as they remember Picasso didn't become famous over night.

The clatter of instruments, the murmers of students singing the scales, the awaking of a horn, the aggravation of learning steps, routines, and drills. Then, at last, the thrill and enthusiasm felt when all these elements combined payoff. And everyone is Gettin' Down to the music of CHS!

It may look easy to you as you see the band playing in unison while in step with the music. Or the choirs singing harmoniously as they perform a dance step. But it's not! For alot of skill combined with effort, and patience, is needed to put it all together. And nobody knows this more than the students here at CHS involved in these spirit building activities.

MIDDLE LEFT: A lot of skill, combined with patience from the "entire group," is needed.

BOTTOM: The choir awaits the signal from Mrs. Doles to continue the program.

Sanding, sawing, drawing, planting and welding—what do all these things have in common? They all pertain to classes in the back corner of C.H.S. A lot of noise and confusion goes on back here but many doubtful beginnings come out as beautiful products.

The area is filled with students who seem to be wearing costumes. The mechanics, dressed as if to perform surgery, pick up a welders rod and put two pieces of metal together instead of delicate stitching of tissues. The woodworkers are attired as skilled pilots, but fly through wood rather than skies with the use of power tools. The drafters are armed with their T-sticks, but only use it on paper. Although called the farmers, Hort. and Ag. students learn many sophisticated and technical skills.

Even though they may sometimes look a little funny in their outfits the classes in that back corner add a lot of potential to a students future vocational plans.

What a year of HIGH TIMES we encountered! It started with Homecoming and ended with us receiving our diplomas. These were the good times we remember so well, which helped keep many of us from certain boredom! These exciting activities included the state's worst blizzard, the energy crunch, the prom, the pep sessions, the follies, and awards day; all those special occasions that brighten everyone's year. Inside will be found many pictures of people living it up, and also a few solemn happenings. Due to the severe strain on electricity there was but one sad note. This year's musical had to be cancelled because of the long practices needed to perfect it. All these special events make up a most important part of a total education.

HIGH TIMES [35]

Spirit!

Surprisingly, Carroll High is still standing after homecoming week. "50's", "Overhaul'em", and "Hats off to the Chargers" day added to a "rowdy" homecoming week as cheers and "heys" were shouted throughout the commons.

There was much enthusiasm when the first annual powder puff football game was held prior to the bonfire. The seniors romped to a 20-0 victory over the juniors. The game was highlighted by the cheer "eat zucchini" performed by the guy cheerleaders. Afterwards, the bonfire was lit, a Woodlan Warrior was thrown into the fire and the football team was raced over on a fire engine.

The students were ecstatic with enthusiasm as the pep session began. The football team's coordination was tested when they did an exercise routine with the Drill Team. The pep session was highlighted with Mrs. Biggs winning the wheelbarrow race.

Homecoming

"Rowdy," the theme for the year-book, was also the theme for homecoming. The night was clear and the stands were packed with people overflowing onto the grass and track. The air was filled with electricity as the voice of every fan filled the air. The floats, band, drill team, and queens court paraded around the track prior to the game.

Then the drama really started when the football players accepted the challenge of the Woodlan Warriors. During the first half the Chargers dominated the game and showed what a tough opponent they were by leading 24 to 6.

The band took over at half, vibrating the air with music, then stood at attention as all eyes focused on the queens. The winner, Carrie White, burst into tears as she proudly accepted the crown. The other queen candidates were seniors Donna Hitchcock and Julie Herdman, Junior Eileen Grimmer, Sophomore Linda Lowe, and Freshman Deanna Stuart.

The game was a rewarding success with the final score 44 to 29. It was a humdinger of a Homecoming.

Bonged!

Take the class clown as M.C., add a phrase like "I love this next act"; mix them up with a panel of Dolly Parton, Spock and the Mystery Man, and you have "The Bong Shooow", as the theme of the 1977 Follies.

"The Bong Shooow", a spin off of the T.V. series the Gong Show, was a big hit. A favorite in the Follies was a hilarious act called "Homecoming", which was a take-off from the Carol Burnett Show. Also highlighting the "Bong Shooow" was the "Spirit of 77" band with that good old rock and roll music from the '50's, and the panel dancing the "Twist".

The M.C., Don Sobczak, and the panel, Lori McNabb, Kevin Grimmer and Greg Muncy, played a major role in the success of the follies. They rated the acts, gave their verbal opinions, and sometimes joined in with an act.

The witty humor of the M.C., the comical lines of the panel and the enthusiasm in the acts will be a challenge for future C.H.S. students to meet.

Christmas was...

Christmas was . . . Tradition. Tradition that filled everyone's heart with gladness. Tradition that was honored in all languages.

Christmas was . . . decorations. Decorations that brightened up the walls, the doors, the tree, and the people.

Christmas was . . . music. Music that filled each hall and corridor with gaiety and joy.

Christmas was . . . a tree. A little tree that glistened bright with lights, tinsel, and a shining star.

Christmas was . . . Santa. The jolly old elf who visited us along with his reindeer, elves, and Mrs. Claus. He brought happiness and surprises to the young at heart.

Christmas was Carroll High School joining together in friendship and harmony to celebrate the holiday season.

What happens when 8 inches of snow along with 50 m.p.h. winds is dumped on a city in one night? It leaves it virtually buried. Even though the snow left beautiful affects, it caused many problems.

The blizzard of '78 hit Ft. Wayne on January 25 leaving the city paralyzed and school canceled for 7 days. Students suffered such side effects as "cabin fever" and were anxious to return to school.

However, shortly after returning to school another crisis hit. Because of a coal shortage due to a coal miners strike, schools were ordered to cut back on electrical use by 50%. For Carroll this meant dark halls and classrooms, cold lunches, shorter athletic practices, and no use of audio visual equipment. For those who survived it, the winter of '78 will be long remembered.

WINTER OF '78 [49]

It's Showtime...

Combine the talents of the Theater II classes with the music of Minstrel Magic and the efforts of the Music Association along with well-known teachers, mix well, and what do you get? A spring filled with fabulous entertainment. That's what this spring brought us in the form of "Lock, Stock and Lipstick", "Equinox 78", and "Something Nostalgic".

"Lock, Stock and Lipstick", a three act play presented by the Theater II class, centered around the activities of the people of Pembroke High School. Through the excellent efforts of the actors, characters such as Mr. Warren, the male chauvinistic guidance counselor, Jane Gardner, the overly ambitious girls counselor, and the unpredictable troublemaker, Larry, were brought to the stage.

Another highlight of the year was the variety show sponsored by the Music Association. "Something Nostalgic" was a fulfilled menagerie of entertainment in the form of dance, song, and skits. With Mr. Bauserman as Master of Ceremonies, the audience was delighted with acts such as the "Dance of the Flowers", a chorus line containing such familiar faces as George McKinney, Jim Potter, and Ed Fox. This and much more made the show a big success.

Even though the spring musical was cancelled, some of the Carroll students were allowed to exhibit their talents as vocalists in the Swing Choirs production of "Equinox 78". On April 28th, "Minstrel Magic" entertained the audiences with an array of songs and dances. This year will long be remembered for its continuous pageant of talent.

You're My Everything

The juniors spent much money on the 1978 prom. For the first time it was held at a new place called "The Candlelight Inn".

On the prom court were seniors: Linda Kaplan, Jeff Warner, Julie Herdman, Dane Butzow, Carrie White, Don Sobczak, Karen Gayle, and Kevin Grimmer. At 10:30 Carrie White and Don Sobczak were named king and queen of the prom. Afterwards the court danced to the prom theme "You're My Everything" played by the band "Eclipse".

In all the prom was a great success, as the turn out was very large. After the prom the after-prom was held at the Shiloh with disco music.

PROM [53]

Prom Fever

Combine the excitement of a special night, some rockin' music and the latest dance steps, and what do you have? The Carroll 1978 After-Prom. The seniors again sponsored their after-prom at the Shiloh, but this after-prom had a new bump—the music was provided by the DB's Unlimited, disc jockeys whose disco music and colored flashing lights added a "Saturday Night Fever" feel to an already special event. The loose and casual atmosphere of the after-prom allowed a variety of Carroll students to relax after a long evening and to psych up for the many parties still ahead. With plans made for the lakes, the parks and the dunes, the weekend of May 6 promised to be a memorable one.

Being Honored

Awards Day . . . a day set aside to honor those who have achieved high standards in areas of interest to them.

The day began very early for the Class of '78 with the Senior Breakfast. Afterwards everyone filled the gym for the presentation of awards. This year the honors went to only the Seniors, so the assembly was extra special for the Senior Class.

Presentations were made to students receiving scholarships and awards for outstanding achievements in academics and organizations. The morning ended, all too soon, leaving the Seniors waiting for graduation yet to come.

The Best Times

The final last days at Carroll for the '78 Seniors were made special by providing each day with a different event.

On one day all of the Seniors dressed down in their shabbiest belongings, overalls, dirty crummy jeans; just anything they could salvage out of the trash cans. Dress Down Day led to Dress Up Day, when all the Seniors dressed up in their best apparel. The guys wore their finest three-piece suits, and the girls wore their most ravishing dresses.

Then came Senior Olympics Day, when all the Seniors met out on the football field to participate in a variety of games and events. Before the starting of the Olympic-type games Mr. McKinney was given his sponsor award—a few 6-packs of "Miller" beer.

The final day began with the Senior Breakfast, where the Seniors awarded Mr. Cox with a wig to cover up his shine, and Mike Corrao was named Senior Breakfast King. The day ended up with "Awards Day" when the most outstanding seniors were awarded for their achievements and abilities.

We Made It!!

"Memories light the corners of my mind." Memories of four years of excitement, frustration, homework, and lots of good times. Now the day has come and those four long years are now over. The good times will be remembered and the bad ones will fade with time. We all sit waiting and expecting in our blue caps and gowns. All of us recalling the years that have gone by. Looking back on the first hectic day with a smile on our face. Recalling the crazy times spent with friends. Suddenly your name is called and you walk up to the platform. In your mind you feel yourself reaching out for that long awaited diploma. Instantly you are filled with a joy and yet a sorrow. Joy that you have accomplished this much in your life, yet a sorrow of seeing it all end. Finally after you are back in your seat the emotion is so strong that you slowly lift your hand to your cap and whirl it into the air. You made it!! We made it!!!! CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 1978!!

EVER HEY FEVER HEY FEVER HEY FEVER HEY FEVER HEY FEVER HEY

The beginning of another day at Carroll.

The beginning of another day at Carroll.

FEVER HEY FEVER HEY FEVER

When we look back upon our school days at Carroll we will not remember the empty halls or silent classes. We will remember the PARTIERS. The students of CHS. The students are the life, body, and soul of Carroll. They make the halls and classes come alive with laughter, shouts, and, in general, ROWDINESS. They are our memories. Memories of the good times we have had and of the craziness which we were all a part of. The Year was 1978 and the password was ROWDY!!!!!!

TEACHERS

Being a teacher at Carroll can be a bit trying at times, for a teacher is expected to be a scholar, an interpreter able to answer our jumbled questions, an advisor to whom we can go with problems, and on top of all that they must be an expert on any subject a student may happen to bring up. For who expects a student to know something that a teacher does not? Not the students, that's for sure!! But teaching does have its advantages, for who else except the teachers are able to see the accomplishments of their students no matter how small they may be. Satisfaction is gained by watching the students meet their goals. No one else could fill this position and our school days would not be the same without OUR TEACHERS!!!!!!!

What is a Freshman? It's someone in ninth grade, right? Right! But there is more to a Freshman than that! A Freshman is a tough and courageous person. He has to be able to withstand the strong pressures that he is faced with each day. Who else in school is forced to take such grueling classes as Biology 1, Gym, and Algebra 1? Who else gets called "kid" or "punk" every time he turns a corner? Who else gets shoved out of the lunch line every day by a six foot, 225 pound, starving Senior football player? Who else only has 20 people show up to watch their basketball games? NO ONE, that's who! But, it seems like no matter how many pressures are forced upon this strong little person, he always manages to keep his sanity and he grows up to be a nice, normal Senior sooner or later!

What is a Junior? Is it only someone in the eleventh grade. Not totally, there is more to a Junior than that! A Junior is someone who has risen from the Freshman and Sophomore ranks. A Junior is a person who can put up with a full year of History Class. Juniors are students who work hard at Candy Sales for the Junior/Senior Prom. One of a Juniors biggest goals in life (other than becoming a senior) is to create a sensational prom.

This should answer any questions on what a Junior is. If not, a Junior is someone who is almost a Senior.

It took three long enduring years at Carroll before they became seniors. When that long awaited year did arrive, they wished it would never end. The year went by quickly with many exciting events and happenings. The year was 1978 and the senior class was full of energy and school spirit.

There was a feeling of power in them, which they never wanted to give up. They enjoyed being the number one group of students in the school, whom the other students looked up to and followed. They had a certain air that made them superior; a certain individuality that could never be mistaken. The CLASS OF 1978 will never be forgotten.

Michele DeHaven

A black and white photograph of a marching band in uniform, led by a man in a white shirt and light-colored trousers. The band members are wearing dark uniforms with white accents and tall, white, pointed hats. They are marching on a paved path, with trees and a building visible in the background.

HEY FEVER HEY FEVER
HEY FEVER HEY FEVER HEY FEVER HE

The rushed half hour early Wednesday morning, the noisy, boisterous lunch hours, the get togethers after school. These are all times for GETTIN' ROWDY!!!! Some of the settings for this rowdiness are: Bonfires, field trips, pep sessions, and assorted other activities participated in by the organizations of CHS. The organizations of Carroll provide good times for all the students involved. They give us reasons to have fun and rowdy times. When looking back on our high school years, the organizations we participated in and the times for GETTIN' ROWDY will be remembered.

GETTIN' ROWDY [117]

Making Money

Swart try any way they can to get customers to buy from the newspaper staff. BOTTOM: "Doughnuts, anyone?" Mat Maids Marie Scoins, Michelle Heffelfinger, and Julie Coffee provide an early morning treat for the Carroll clan.

Money, money, money! There never seems to be enough of that green stuff to go around! It seems like no matter how hard we work for it, how wisely we spend it, or how long we save it, we're always needing more of it! Everybody has this problem, and clubs and groups are no exception. All through the year, clubs, groups, and teams take turns working at the concession stand during football and basketball season or working on money-making projects.

Carroll High School often seems like a variety store during different times of the school year. The merchandise ranges from bubble gum, candy, and pep buttons during Homecoming and County Tourney time to t-shirts and baked goods during gymnastics and wrestling season.

Also available to the consumers of CHS are a variety of tickets. Tickets for Christmas dances, Homecoming dances, after-prom dances and just plain dances; tickets for raffles where the lucky winner gets fifteen top record albums or the once-in-a-lifetime chance to hit a teacher in the face with a pie!

Yes, we're always in need of more money, and the students of Carroll High School can think of some pretty imaginative ways to earn it!!!

feelin' " while entertaining the student body. MIDDLE LEFT: "It's alive!" thinks Senior Jeff Warner, as he makes himself beautiful for a pep session.

"Charging on to victory, let's show them Carroll's here! . . ." And that we did! When Carroll sports were involved, everyone knew we were there. The reason for this? Why, it's simple—We've got spirit! But, who is we? Well, it's the athletes, the cheerleaders, the Mat Maids, the Drill Team, the Twirlers, the Band, and the rest of the students and parents who attended the athletic events to cheer on our teams!

Carroll High was fortunate to have twenty-two high spirited Cheerleaders to lead the many chants and cheers. There was a new aspect to cheerleading this year, though. Seven of them were male! The girls and the guys pulled together to add more school spirit to the games.

The band, Drill Team, and Twirlers provided pre-game and half-time entertainment for the many sports fans. The music of the band, the swish of pom-pons, and the sparkle of twirling batons delighted the people and encouraged and supported the team.

If you ever went to a wrestling meet, you probably noticed that the Mat Maids were constantly scurrying around like busy bees. This group of girls cheered on the wrestling team all through the season. They provided oranges for the wrestlers and gave them support during their many victories and even their losses.

Last, but not least, there were the fans. The students, teachers, parents, and all of those people who came and gave our teams the support that they needed to make it through the seasons. Without the fans, Cheerleaders, Drill Team, Twirlers, and the Band, there would have only been a game. With them, there was a game, team support, and—SPIRIT!

TOP LEFT: "I've got legs!" Brent Alexander and Risa Churchward look on as Judd Carey shows his hidden talents. MIDDLE LEFT: The Charger Band provides music during halftime. MIDDLE CENTER: "Popcorn anyone?" Shelly McNabb and Cheryl Alexander work the concession stand during a wrestling meet. MIDDLE RIGHT: Perry Blessing holds up Tanya Simpson as the rest of the Cheerleaders wait below to catch her during the announcement of the starting five. BOTTOM LEFT: Jeff Franc leads the Charger Basketball team onto the court as the Cheerleaders and Drill Team cheer them on! BOTTOM RIGHT: Senior Tammy Krieger uses her twirling abilities to spark up the halftime activities.

LEARNING TOGETHER

ABOVE: M. J. Quinn displays the disco dancing ability that got him a job in "Saturday Night Fever." ABOVE RIGHT: Members of the FFA display the plaques that they have won throughout the year. RIGHT: Mrs. Knight talked to a large group of students about the Moonie Cult.

When was the last time that a speaker came into one of your classes and showed slides of his trip to South America? Probably never, right? This was the reason that clubs were established, because they contribute to a total learning experience that would never have been taught in the ordinary classroom.

Other fascinating things that were done during the year include trips to Chicago Museums, speakers that gave descriptions of the Moonie Cult, and honoring fellow members at various banquets.

Their excursions included a trip to the Science and Industry Museum in Chicago and parties at the Bryon Health Center for the Senior Citizens.

The speakers included a young man who traveled to the exotic country of South America, a lady who talked to future secretaries about National Secretaries Week, and a speaker from WMEE who talked to a large group of students about the business world.

Even though it does cost a dollar for dues, it's better than sitting in your first period class on Wednesday mornings.

"Wow! Tomorrow's our party!" "Yeah, it's gonna be great! That pizza will really taste good." "Hey, Jeff, is your club having a party?" "Yeah, we're having a piñata party; everybody's bringing something to eat. It'll be alot of fun."

What kind of club would not let their members have a couple of days just to let it all hang out and have some fun? Well, not the kind at Carroll. Usually near the holidays, the work ends and the do-your-own-thing begins. It's great!

On weekends and during after-school hours, club members meet to do a variety of fun things. They have parties with things to eat and have different activities to do. They also go out to eat at restaurants and sometimes take trips to places like Cedar Point. So, just remember, taking part in a club doesn't mean you'll always be working.

The Longest Yard

It begins with a physical that is taken sometime during the summer months and this is followed by three days of conditioning that seems to never end. Next comes two weeks of twice a day practices that teach us how to sweat and suffer, but most of all how to cut the corners on the mile that must be completed before practice is over.

There aren't any easy ways out of the extremely hard work and the sacrifices that accompanies every person that competes as a football player.

In this game the players are asked to use their bodies as blocking dummies, walls, and anything else that may be needed to propel our team across the ever important goal line.

To avoid last years ironic situation, when an undefeated Carroll couldn't participate because of their small school schedule, we scheduled our first game against a much larger school, South Side.

After this opening game loss the Chargers rebounded to win five consecutive games before their first conference loss to a stubborn Leo team in a terrible rainstorm.

They finished the season with a respectable 8-2 record highlighted by a homecoming romp over arch rival Woodlan. The Chargers placed four members on the all-conference team, led by Seniors Len Shank, Joe Hartman, Scott Simpson, and burly Junior Greg Rank. Three new records were set by this years team. They were longest field goal, a 43 yd. shot by Todd Shirk, a 93 yd. kickoff return by Len Shank, and a 39.2 yd. punting average by Rick Myers.

Reserve and Frosh have winning seasons; both end with fine 5-1 records.

After getting rid of first game jitters, the Reserve football team settled down to play good football throughout the entire season. Our toughest game was against DeKalb, which turned out to be a defensive struggle. The Reserve team's overall record was 5-1. The most impressive statistics for the season was that our opponents scored an average of $3\frac{1}{2}$ points, while we scored $17\frac{1}{4}$ pts. Under the leadership of Coach Dave Bordner they had a well disciplined team that provided the necessary balance for a winning season.

This year's freshman football team ended their campaign with a fine 5-1 record, shutting out their last three opponents.

The Chargers played good hard-nosed defense and were able to effectively mix the run and pass.

The team elected Tim Arata and Chris Nygaard as Captains for the year and chose Todd DeHaven as outstanding offensive back. Barry Dice and Scott Zehr were outstanding linemen; and Jeff Hartman was outstanding defensive player.

Bump, Volley, and Spike. While most of us were still enjoying the last of our summer vacations, Mrs. McAlexander and the girls Volleyball Team were here at school preparing for their first match. After winning several opening games, the team placed sixth in a statewide rating poll.

The team consisted of four returning lettermen and five rookies who ended their season with a record of eight wins and eleven losses. The team went into the ACAC tourney beating Southern Wells; however, they were knocked out after a grueling match against the Woodlan Warriors.

At the fall sports banquet, Dawn Lutter was named team captain and Eileen Grimmer was voted Most Valuable Player.

Over Hill, Over Dale

As a Cross-Country runner nears the bottom of a mountainous hill that he must scale to finish, he begins to wonder if running is really worth it. To a Cross-Country runner these hills look like Mount Everest. The Cross-Country team under the first year direction of Coach Dan Auer faced many of these hills. Coach Auer led his team to a record of 7 wins and 8 losses.

The C.C. team set a new total team time of 66:45, surpassing the old record of 68:26. The team members setting this record were: Jeff Gaff, Stuart Brown, Jeff Janda, Terry Bussen, and Matt Hess. Jeff Gaff also bettered his last year's school record of 13:16 to this year's record of 12:50. Jeff was named Co-MVP of the team and placed 8th in the Conference meet and 25th in Sectionals. Stuart Brown was named Co-MVP and Captain of the team and placed 10th in the Conference meet and 31st in Sectionals.

The team placed 3rd out of 8 teams in the ACAC and finished 10th in the 24 team Sectional.

Burning the Nets

It was an up and down year for Coach Herm Moyer and his Varsity Basketball team. The defending County Tourney and ACAC champions were hoping for big things this year because of the return of three all-conference starters: Jeff Warner, Lennie Shank, and Rich Myers. The highly talented Chargers finished the season with an overall record of 15-8 and 6-2 in the ACAC. The record, however, is not indicative of the team's performance because 4 of the 8 losses were by a total of nine points. In fact, five points cost the Chargers two titles in their games with Norwell which CHS lost by 2 and 3 points. The regular season game prevented Carroll from winning the ACAC, and the loss by 3 at the Coliseum, cost the Chargers their second consecutive County Tourney crown.

The season was filled with many highlights. Coach Moyer "kicked" his way into our hearts in the game with Dekalb. In a big win over highly-touted Harding, Lennie Shank scored the 1000th point of his high school basketball career, placing him among a select few in Allen County. The Chargers were defeated by eventual champion Norwell in the County Tourney, but Rick Myers made the all-tourney team and Scott Sordelet received honorable mention.

In the Sectional, CHS played up to its pre-season laurels when they defeated Wayne and Bishop Luers to reach the finals. Then the Chargers ran into number one ranked North Side and were beaten 89-66. Lennie Shank made all-sectional first team while Rick Myers, Jeff Warner, and Judd Carey were named to the second team.

The many outstanding individual performances resulted in the establishment of five new school records. Rick Myers, the Cavalier's player of the year, shot 58.8% from the field to break his own record set last year. Scott Sordelet eclipsed the existing free throw percentage record as he connected on 81.6% of his charity tosses. Jeff Warner set a new assist record of 192, breaking his own mark set a year ago. This is a record that probably will never be broken. Lennie Shank's 1113 career points marked another school record for the Senior forward. The high scoring Chargers shot so well all year they set a new field goal percentage record as a team with a mark of 50.4%.

Carroll placed three players on the all-ACAC team: Rick Myers, Jeff Warner, and Lennie Shank.

Reserve & Frosh Played With Varsity Caliber

The Freshmen Basketball team, under the direction of Coach Kent Lochmuller, ended their season with an excellent 12-2 record. The highlight of the year was a tournament victory at Heritage for the young cagers. Their only losses came at the hands of a tough Bishop Luers squad and a lanky Harding team. The leading scorer was Mike Merriman, while Todd Dehaven and Kris Nygaard led in the rebound department.

Coach Dean Merriman guided a well experienced reserve team to a respectable 13 wins and 5 losses record. This skillfully coached squad will undoubtedly make many valuable contributions to next year's varsity team. Carrying the scoring load for the team were Mike Mader and Tim Bojrab. Clearing the boards for the team was Jim Krempel.

Off the Boards

In the early hours of the night, after the school was cleared, you could hear the faint sound of bouncing basketballs being dribbled from basket to basket. As you drew closer, you heard a whistle and voices of athletes hard at work. Peeking through the gym doors, you watched an exhibition of skill and strategy as the girls' basketball team practiced.

They were a young team, only two years old, but they had determination enough to face anyone who challenged them. Under the coaching of Yvonne Exner, the girls endured injuries, snow, and stiff competition to complete their hard fought season with five wins and six losses.

The girls posted wins against Churubusco, Southern Wells, Heritage, and Woodlan. The biggest victory was scored over DeKalb when the Chargers crushed the Barons by forty points. At the close of the season, Sophomore Pam Swihart and Senior Sharon Rohrer received honorable mention all conference recognition.

Pinning 'em down

Only one more day to go and five more pounds to lose! Will you make it? Are you beginning to wonder . . . is it really worth it? Now is your chance; the clock has started and within six minutes of struggling you'll know the answer when the ref slaps the mat. Fighting off hunger pangs to make their strict weight categories antagonized wrestlers all year.

Because wrestling is such an individual sport, a wrestler can make no excuses for a loss. He can only say that he didn't have enough desire to try harder. Coach Fox worked hard all year to instill this desire in his wrestlers.

After losing ten talented wrestlers through graduation or injuries, this figured to be a major rebuilding year for Charger wrestling team. Coach Fox, however reached into his bag of tricks and put together a patchwork team of inexperienced freshmen and former reserve wrestlers to fill the vacated spots. He was rewarded with a respectable record of 7-4. The Chargers also won their third consecutive Sectional title, while placing first in the ACAC meet and second in the East Noble Invitational. Leading the way for the Chargers were Stu Brown, Greg Vickery, Dean Timmerman, Scott Simpson, and Dan Roth. These five C.H.S. wrestlers accounted for 408 of the teams 468 points scored during the season.

One outstanding individual who exemplified Carroll's remarkable wrestling program is Stuart Brown. Stu swept through Sectional and Regional titles unbeaten. He then embarked upon the Ft. Wayne Semi-State tournament where he pinned his first two opponents, then lost a 8-3 decision to Tom Mills. His second place finish earned him a ticket to the state meet. Stuart finished the year with a record of 24-3 and an eighth finish place in the state. He became the only wrestler since Ron Wells in 1974 to go to the state meet from Carroll.

Reserves and Frosh gain experience

The reserve wrestling team, under the direction of Coach Gene Merkle, completed the season with a record of 6 wins and 5 losses.

Six freshmen were on the reserve team. These students were also on the freshmen team. They competed in only one meet which was against DeKalb. Their record was 0 wins and 1 loss.

In the New Haven Invt. there were no team scores kept but there were many fine individual performances. Dave Dunten led the team with a 1st place finish. Steve Till and Jim Smith placed 2nd, while Brad Shipe, Matt Reynolds, and Brad Conklin all placed 3rd.

Coach Merkle attributes this year's success to "lots of hard work and some really good kids." Mr. Merkle has coached the reserves for 3 years.

In some of the meets the 167-lb. wrestlers had to move up to heavier weight classes due to a lack of anybody over 167 lbs.

Dave Dunten (13-0), Tony Berdelman (8-1), and Mike Zehner (6-20) comprised the nucleus of the team.

Grace in Motion

Leaping over rigid horses, somersaulting off uneven bars, tumbling onto mats; it's a bird, it's a plane! No it's the Carroll Gymnastics team in one of their dual meets. If you have never seen real "grace in motion" you've obviously never been to a gymnastics meet. Unlike other spectator sports, this one requires total silence from the fans because a gymnast has to concentrate intensely during her performance.

Due to the "Blizzard of 78", five of the gymnastics matches had to be canceled, but our fearless gymnasts persevered and did manage to compete in five dual meets. These meets, however, happened to be against some powerhouses in this sport. Considering the tough opponents they had to face their 2-3 record is not indicative of the fierce competitiveness that was displayed by the team.

Leading the way for this year's team were Captain Eileen Gradley and MVP Jill Zehner respectively. Outstanding individual performances were turned in by Regional participants Jill Zehner, Lucy Schortgen, and Risa Churchward. They placed first in Intermediate All-Around, second in Beginning Beam, and second in Beginning Bars respectively.

Keep On Trackin'

"Only eight more quarters at race goal pace and a three mile warm down to go before practice is over." That is just a part of what every track runner must go through night after night. In order to win in track, each individual must give 100% effort in every meet.

Coach Tom Keefer led his cinder-men to a 12-1 record overall and a 7-1 record in the Conference, with the loss going to Norwell. The Chargers placed six runners on the All-Conference team, led by Lennie Shank in the 100, Shot Put, and Discus. Rick Cool won the long jump, and the Mile Relay team, consisting of Dane Butzow, Todd DeHaven, Terry Bussen, and Mike Spencer, also won.

There were many new school records set this year. Lennie Shank set 4 (10.0 in the 100, 22.2 in the 220, 55'6" in the Shot and 164'9" in the Discus.) Joe Hartman tied the record in the high hurdles at 15.1 and set the 330 lows in 40.4. Greg Oswald tied the high jump with a 6'2" jump and the 880 relay team consisting of R. Haun, T. DeHaven, K. Shank, L. Shank ran a 1:31.4.

The trackmen won the Carroll Relays and the East Noble Relays for the 2nd year in a row and also placed 2nd in the ACAC and Goshen Relays. They placed 5th in the Sectionals with L. Shank, R. Cool and K. Shank advancing to Regionals. Todd Shirk was voted Captain of the team with Lennie Shank as MVR. Todd DeHaven was named Rookie of the Year and Kerry Shank was named as Most Improved. Lennie Shank placed third in the 220 and fourth in the shot put at Regionals. These placings will advance Lennie to the state meet.

On Your Marks

"Positive thinking; lean into the curve; keep your knees up!" These were just a few of the things first year Coach Kruse drilled into our heads. And all these paid off as the girl's track team ended the year with a 7-2 record and the A.C.A.C. title for the second consecutive year.

Leading the team with the most points scored during the year was senior Verna Goodson with 102 points. She also set a new school long jump record with a leap of 17'7", breaking her own record by a foot. Also capturing records were Kelly Hall in the 100 yard dash with a time of 11.1, breaking the old record by a tenth of a second. Andrea Barnfield broke her own record by 3 seconds in the mile with a clocking of 6:13.0. Jenny Mayhall set a new record in the 880 run with a time of 2:31.0. And Mari Gross broke by 5" the shot put record, formerly held by Coach Kruse, with a put of 32'7 $\frac{1}{2}$ ".

"Way to go, Burly Bob! Drill it home, Chi-Chi! Stake it, Bair! Way to slide, Curtis! Be serious Geeken! Go Chargers, beat the field!" These were just a few of many sayings which, with the help of coach and biggest asset Jim Beard, inspired the boys golf team to a first-ever trip to the State Meet at Indianapolis. The team ended their season with a highly respectable ninth in state finals, and went on to place Mike Bair and Mike Meehan on the All-Area Golf Team.

The Varsity golfers had an outstanding season and finished with a dual meet record of 18-4. The Reserve squad, led by Dave Anderson, Ken Weddle, and Chuck Corrao, gave high hopes for future seasons as they finished undefeated with a mark of 13-0.

The Chargers performed well in tournaments, including a third consecutive conference championship based on a 7-1 record and a second place finish in the ACAC tournament at Eel River. MVP Mike Bair placed second individually and was named to the All-Conference team. CHS also repeated as Central Noble Champs and Mike Bair was again runner-up medalist. With four returning lettermen, including Bair and team captain Mike Corrao, Beard's Aces returned to Brookwood to defend their Sectional title, but placed second, two strokes behind Bishop Dwenger. This qualified them for the Regional Tournament at Lafayette. Bair finished runner-up medalist for the second year in a row as he shot 75. Before the regional, the Chargers blitzed the field in the Angola Invitational at Zollner with a 307 score. Sophomore Mike Meehan was medalist with a 74.

During the year two new school records were set. Senior Mike Bair shot an unbelievable 32 at Colonial Oakes on the strength of 6 birdies and two bogies. The team of Bair, Mike Meehan, Ken Weddle and Mike Corrao set a new 9 hole record with 141.

Beginning the year with a new coach and a very young team, the hard-working girls golf team, led by Coach Steve Moran, climbed their way to an impressive 8-1 season record and third place in the sectional, which they hosted.

Medalist Lori Gumbert led the squad with an individual record of 45. The low team score was 204. The scrappy young team's only loss was against Wawasee in a game which was stopped due to rain.

Varsity season averages included MVP Gumbert at 47.8, senior Joyce McComb with 54.1, Captain Karen Thompson at 54.5, Julie Arney with 57.1 and Marie Scoins with 60.4. Reserves Violet Burkhart and Peggy Keefe shot 64 and 67 respectively. With only one varsity player graduating, hopes for next season are understandably very high.

Free Swingers

"There he goes!" "Second base!" "Bring it home!" These were just a few of the phrases that could be heard coming from the mouths of coaches Herm Moyer and Jim Potter. The knowledge possessed by them helped lead this year's team to a fine 13-3 overall record and a 7-1 conference mark, which gave Carroll a share of the conference title with Leo.

With the many people that returned from last year's Sectional runner-up's, this figured to be a good year for Carroll. It came as no surprise that the team gave state ranked teams such as number 4 Dekalb a tough game before losing in extra innings, while they defeated number 6 Bishop Luers.

The leading flingers were seniors Erland Maki and Judd Carey. Erland pitched a no-hit and no-run game against Adams Central and finished the season with a 5-1 record. Judd carried the other half of the pitching load with a 5-2 record and an earned run average of 1.89, which was identical with Erland's. The top swingers were Tim Maki and Kevin Grimmer, with batting averages of .363 and .358 respectively. Along with his great hitting, Tim Maki also broke the school record for home runs with a phenomenal eight four-baggers.

Gaining All-Conference honors in baseball were seniors Erland Maki, Scott Clark and Kevin Grimmer.

LET'S GET ROWDY!

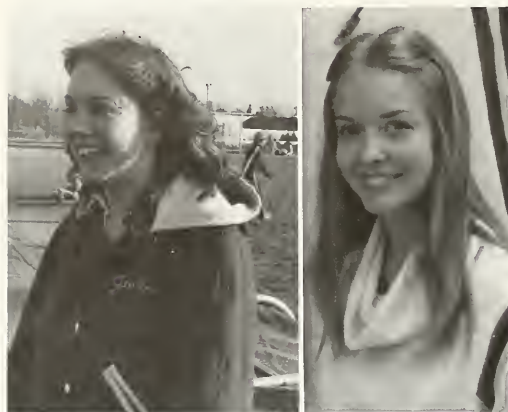

Looking back on the school year 1977-78, we will remember the fun, crazy times: The times that we really didn't care who thought we were insane; rowdy times at pep sessions, total chaos at lunch, and completely crazy times spent with friends. We will look back and think "Could I have been that rowdy?" And then we will probably have to smile and admit it. "We were! We Are!!!" HEY FEVER has found its way into all of our lives and made this year at Carroll different from any past year or any year to come in the future. It was unique because of the rowdiness, good times, and mainly because of us. Never again will the same group of people roam the halls. Never again will HEY FEVER reign as it did this year.

STAFF SURVIVES FEVER

The year 1978 has been a great challenge for the Cavalier Staff. We wanted our book to be original and as always we wanted it better than any book published. We started with an optimistic and hopeful attitude and I believe our attitude stayed hopeful throughout the year. We came up with many original ideas and worked together to get them to fit in with our plans. I feel that this year has been a successful one for the staff and that our book is original. We have many people to thank for making the 1978 Cavalier possible. These include: Mrs. Schaefer, who was willing to put in so much of her spare time to be our sponsor; Root Photographers, whom we owe for their great cooperation in taking group and activity pictures, and all the Cavalier's Advertisers and Patrons who supported us financially throughout the year. But most of all, I personally would like to thank the staff, who, I think, did a fantastic job and worked together well through all the obstacles that we encountered.
